The City Council should have the names of our streets painted on neat boards and nailed up at all the corners. The boards would not cost much, and it would be a great convenience in locating the residences of our citizens. It would not have to be done but once, sathe boards would last long enough for everybody to learn the names of the streets.

The attention of our readers is directed to W. A. Chapman's new advertisement. About 1st September he will move into the store-room new occupied by M. B. Arnstein, and rather than go to the trouble and expense of moving his large stock of goods, he will until that time sell everything at greatly reduced prices for cash. Don't put off visiting his store too long, for if you do you may miss a bargain.

Ellis Major, a colored boy, while bething in Cochran & Burriss' mill pond, on Generostree Creek, in Rock Mills Township, last Saturday afternoon, was drowned. He got into deep water and sank before his companions could reach him. His body was recovered two or three hours afterwards. Coroner Nance held an inquest over the deceased on Sunday, and the jury rendered a verdict of accidental drowning.

The Atlanta Constitution says persons in the habit of gulping down immense draughts of cold water several times a day are in danger. One drink of water will last an Arab in the sandy Soudan a couple of days. It is suicidal folly for a man to swill water two or three times before breakfast, at his meals, and between them and several times before retiring for the night, to say nothing of an occasional drink when he wakes up. Such excess will poison, injure or kill a man with a constitution of iron.

The Greenville News, of the 17th inst. says: "Dunham's Bridge was on yesterday received by the Commissioners of Anderson and Greenville counties and is being traveled over. It is undoubtedly the handsomest, strongest and best bridge in upper South Carolina. Its readway is twelve feet wide, and it is as firm as the ground, a buggy driven over it at a trot falling to produce the slightest vibration. It is guarded on both sides by iron railings so that a run off is impossible, and is good for fifty years."

The ladies of Ebenezer Church, in Martin Township, have arranged to have a Festival on Friday, 31st inst., for the purpose of raising funds to repair the Church and make some repairs on the interior. The Festival will take place at the Church, and will no doubt be a most pleasant occasion. Everything will be sold at the most reasonable prices. The object is a worthy one, and we bespeak for the ladles a liberal patronage. During the day addresses will be delivered by several gentlemen.

Last Saturday evening, about 7 o'clock, Last Saturday evening, about 7 o'clock, during a thunder storm, Mr. Louis Sharpe's dwelling house, on Orr street, was struck by lightning. The house is one and a half stories high, with a very steep roof. The lightning struck the South side of the roof, tearing a large hole through it and the ceiling, and came out through the boxing under the eave. The boxing caught fire, and in a few seconds every body was startled by the cry of fire. The firemen turned out promptly, but before they reached the house the fire was extinguished by a few buckets of water. Nothing in the house was damaged by the stroke. Mrs. Sharpe was sitting on the plazza at the time, and she was considerably frightened and dazed.

There were thirty-three members of the old command present, most of whom brought their families.

Miss Nellie Hoyt, the accomplished daughter of Col. Hoyt, by request, recited in a splendid manner the beautiful poem, entitled "Lee to the Rear."

It was ascertained on inquiry that twenty-one members of the Company, who had married since the war, have one hundred and five children living.

The thanks of the Association are due to Col. Trowbride and the Young America Cornet Band for their excellent music. Taking everything into consideration, they are ahead of any thing in South Carolina.

The thanks of the Association are slao due to Mr. J. C. Keys for the use of his beautiful grounds, and the help and encouragement he has always extended to the soldier boys. He is a whole-souled gentleman.

There were, as near as we could judge, about two hundred persons present.

The beautiful flag presented by the ladies of Leesburg, Va., to the Fourth Regiment at the beginning of the war was present, and was greeted with much pleasure by those present.

Mr. J. C. Keys has one of the finest vegetable gardens below his spring that we have ever seen. It was much admired by those present.

Murder in Abbeville County.

The Honea Path Plaindealer, of last week, contained the following account of The Hones Path Plaindealer, of last week, contained the following account of a murder near that village:

"On Wednesday morning last, about suntise, Mr. W. L. Wood, who lives on Mrs. I. E. Bigby's plantation, "ist over the line of Anderson and Abserville counties, about two mites from Hones Path, had a difficulty with a negro man named Charlie Carter, who was working on the place, and after some parleying, Mr. Wood shot him in the head with a load from a double-barreled shot gun. The load entering in his left jaw, and ranging upward, came out near the top of his head on the right side. Unring everything to pleces, and causing his face and nose to mash or drop in word. Wood remained on the place multi 10 o'clock and told all who came 'but he had done it in self-defence. He then mounted his horse and rode away at a moderate gait without being molested by any one. As the matter is to be investigated in the higher courts, we forbear saying anything in regard to the investigation at the inquest, which was held by Trial Justice C. V. Martin, of Donaldsville, more than that the jury brought in a verdict that he came to his death by a gun shot wound in the hands of W. L. Wood."

aluda Baptist Sunday School Institute

MR. EDITOR: This body of Sunday School workers met at Mt. Bethel Church last Friday and continued in session until Sunday.

The Institute was organized nine years ago, and is composed of delegates from the various Baptist schools in the bounds of the Saluda Association. The purpose of the annual meetings is to discuss various topics relating to the interests of the work, and by the interchange of thought and opinion to better prepare the schools for active work in our Master's cause.

At half-past 10 o'clock on Friday the Institute was called to order by the President, Rev. M. McGee, and delegates enrolled from the different schools, after which the introductory sermon was preached by Rev. T. P. Bell. After one hour's recess for dinner, business was resumed, and the afternoon devoted to the discussion of subjects arranged for the occasion.

At an early hour on Saturday morning
